

Company Profile

about us

Today freight forwarding is much more than simply moving packages from here to there. Modern management techniques necessitate flexibility, knowhow and absolute synchronization of the logistics chain. And that's exactly what we are prepared to do. Our aim is to complete the transportation and logistics chain by linking our clients with their respective associates all over the globe in the most prompt, dependable and cost-effective way.

Everything that we do is geared to offer benefits to our customers. We treat cargo as if it was our own. Our clients have personal, individual needs. Our team is dedicated to providing effective solutions – personally.

Our personal service policy demands our management and staff to be skilled, flexible and concerned. Experience means quality, and that's what you can expect from us. We are totally devoted to providing excellence to our customers and this commitment is what makes us one of the premium freight forwarders and logistics providers in Cyprus.

airfreight

Airfreight is the quickest and most reliable transport mode available. We provide a comprehensive range of import and export airfreight services, catering for all the specific requirements for the various types of goods, time restraints and trading nations. Thanks to our extensive global network of agents, we are in a position to offer the most economical transport solutions, combined with fast and efficient communication.

We utilize all major airliners, offering direct and indirect flights, consolidation, door-to-door, express traffic, split and full charters. We provide innovative airfreight solutions to your shipping requirements and budgetary guidelines.

You can count on first class services as well as prompt and personal attention, even during the peak seasons and under the most challenging conditions.

seafreight

No shipment is too large or too small. Spreading from Cyprus across the seven seas, we have an established network of professional quality partners always ready and capable for the next shipping challenge. We are able to offer a complete range of ocean freight services for all types of cargo from consolidated to full container loads and project cargo. Whatever your requirements and budgetary guidelines, we will propose the most appropriate shipping solutions to move your cargo both quickly and economically, always appraising and offering all available alternatives.

Utilizing some of the endless capabilities of our established worldwide network of agents, we can effectively handle all door to door cargo enquiries from groupage cargo to full container loads. There are of course many stages in this procedure which may sound complex and diverse to you. However, by selecting us as your shipping provider, there is no need for further worries. We take the whole burden off you, while we plan and cover the entire process with our genuine concern about you, your business and your cargo.

customs

Customs and all associated formalities is always a field that causes panic, perplexity and confusion. Considering myriads of regulations, rules and amendments in a simple clearance proceeding, this only makes things extremely complicated. By entrusting us for your customs formalities you simply eliminate risks and dispose of panic and uncertainty.

Practise makes perfect, training eliminates errors and thus there is no need to panic with us... we constantly train our staff and keep in line with all recent customs amendments and we flourish in providing the highest level of customs brokerage services.

Cars, motorcycles, trucks and all motor vehicles are effectively processed via Cyprus Customs and Excise department, having the emissions verified, the excise duties paid and simply handed over to our happy clients at the port gate. And this is no luck or coincidence. Its experience and commitment taken to the highest degree of customer satisfaction.

logistics

We handle the inns and outs of all types of cargo whether small or large to locations all around Cyprus and around the globe. Let us create a logistic package tailored exactly to your individual requirements by analyzing your supply chain determining priorities and propose areas for most economical handling of your products, whether it is to reduce inventory in order to reduce interest charges or tied up working capital, or to avoid stock shortages.

Acting as a strategic partner to companies who wish to outsource part or all of their logistics functions, we specialize in integrated warehousing and transportation services that can be scaled and customized to customer's needs based on market conditions and the demands and delivery service requirements for their products and materials.

Via our full integrated logistics operations we can formulate the optimum logistic strategy for you minimizing your costs and maximizing your profits.

insurance

Cargo Insurance occupies an important position in international trade and while it is primarily concerned with the protection of ocean-going cargo, it also covers against the hazards associated with connecting land conveyances as well as shipments by air.

We offer comprehensive cover with esteem Insurance Brokers originating on our strong partnership and a continuous contract designed to insure your cargo at remarkably low premium rates based on a valuation formula tailored to conform to trade customs.

Marine Insurance can be a complex subject but it is highly recommended that you obtain expert advice and take the time to gain at least a basic understanding of the principles involved. This will enable you to make an informed decision as to who should be .

Never assume that someone else is responsible for insuring your goods during transit. Find out for sure. Otherwise your consignment could be travelling without cover or, at best with only limited liability. Hopefully you'll never need to claim on the insurance but if you do, make sure you're fully covered.

warehousing and distribution

With a modern warehouse located just outside Limassol port, we offer a secure, efficient and economical service to all clients who would like to store or distribute their cargo. Having the ability to concentrate on your core business, in other words, doing what you do best, is a major advantage you gain by outsourcing your warehousing services through us.

When you need a distribution centre that is designed to specifically meet your requirements, we can develop a contract distribution centre for you that is tailored to meet your very unique supply chain needs.

Our high level of professional service and care is your assurance of the safe arrival of your product — anywhere, anytime.

removal services

Transportation of diplomatic and personal effects is an important part of our activities.

We have been successful on the Cyprus market offering full coverage, security and the best quality to our clients. Our international network ensures safe and fast transportation to and from any destination in the world.

Our qualified staff will safely pack and transport your personal belongings using the best route for you. We also offer modern and safe storage facilities for holding your belongings to be moved until the shipment date.
